

Guillaume Buell

Partner

Labaton Keller Sucharow LLP
New York, New York

Guillaume Buell is a partner in the New York office of Labaton Keller Sucharow LLP. He is an experienced and trusted advisor to a wide range of institutional investors in the United States, the United Kingdom, and Europe regarding corporate governance matters, global securities litigation, and shareholder rights. His clients include pension funds (including numerous Taft-Hartley and public funds), asset managers, and insurance companies. As part of the firm's non-U.S. securities litigation practice, which is one of the first of its kind, Guillaume serves as liaison counsel to institutional investors in select overseas matters. Guillaume has been recognized by Lawdragon as a Next Generation Lawyer. He is an active member of the International Foundation and the National Association of Public Pension Attorneys (NAPPA), where he serves as an appointed member of its securities litigation committee, fiduciary and governance committee, and the new member education committee. In addition, he is actively involved with the National Conference on Public Employee Retirement Systems, the Association of Canadian Pension Management, and the Michigan Association of Public Employee Retirement Systems.
