

Stacey Hofert, M.B.A.

Group Vice President of Labor
Progyny
New York, New York

Stacey Hofert serves as the group vice president of labor for Progyny. She works with plan sponsors to incorporate infertility benefits into their family building benefits. She has worked in various capacities, including cost containment, third party administration and most recently infertility benefits, which she managed. She previously held positions at Zenith American Solutions, Inc. and Aegis Cost Containment Services. Hofert has a B.S. degree in human resource management from Western Illinois University and an M.B.A. degree from Keller Graduate School of Management.