

Michael P. (Mike) Jolly, GBA, CHRM

Director of Benefits
Loblaw Companies Limited
Toronto, Ontario

Mike Jolly is director of benefits at Loblaw Companies Limited. He is responsible for managing benefits across the enterprise with multiple carriers, plan designs and funding methods for a range of different colleague populations. Mike is a management trustee on a series of single and multi-employer trusts across Canada and has previously served on the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans Canadian Board. Prior to joining the Loblaw group of companies in 2010, he worked in various corporate and consulting environments gaining experience across a range of industries including insurance, manufacturing, telecom and financial services. Mike graduated from York University, completed his post-secondary certification in Human Resources Management at Humber College, and holds the GBA designation.