

Michelle Ray

Leadership Expert and Accountability Catalyst Vancouver, British Columbia

Born in Australia and now residing in Vancouver, Canada, Michelle Ray is an award-winning leadership business keynote speaker, entrepreneur, author and educator. With more than 25 years of experience researching leadership, change and workforce trends, Ray has a deep understanding of new realities demanding the attention of leaders. She has worked with renowned global brands and diverse corporate clientele, including group insurance providers as well as the government sector and small business. Ray is the author of two books: Lead Yourself First! Indispensable Lessons in Business & in Life and Leading in Real Time: How to Drive Success in a Radically Changing World. She has appeared as a guest on numerous podcasts, TV and current affairs programs. Ray was inducted into the Canadian Speakers Hall of Fame in December 2021.